

ADDRESSING THE REDUCTION OF GHG EMISSIONS FROM AGRICULTURE AND FORESTRY PRODUCTION THROUGH OUTCOMES DELIVERED FROM STATISTICAL SCIENCES

This project is funded by CSIRO to build dynamical statistical models for the movement of carbon in soil, in collaboration with CSIRO soil scientists and statisticians. The award is a Sustainable Agriculture Flagship project from CSIRO's 2013 Flagship Collaboration Fund.

For further information, contact Distinguished Professor Noel Cressie.